

What do pints and volunteering have in common? – Volunteer Toronto’s one-of-a-kind annual event lets volunteers create their own opportunities over craft beer

For immediate release
May 21, 2018

Toronto, ON—Local craft beer—and hand-crafted volunteer roles—are on tap at Volunteer Toronto’s 5th annual Craft Your Change event. The first event of its kind in Toronto, Craft Your Change brings together young professionals and the organizations who need them for a night of fun, food, drinks, and creating perfect volunteer roles. This unique and popular event hosts around 30+ Toronto charities and non-profits and up to 200 participants.

What makes it different? Rather than simply applying for a pre-existing role, participants are able to decide which skills they want to offer, to whom, and how much time they can give. They specify what—and how much time—they have to offer. Organizations have the chance to let participants know about their specific needs, and everyone gets the chance to meet face-to-face. After the event, organizations then use the cards to connect with participants whose skills and availability meet their needs.

What: You’re invited to attend Volunteer Toronto’s annual Craft Your Change event. Interview opportunities with “Canada’s Premier Entertainment Personality”, event host Donovan Fernandes, and event creator Camara Chambers, Executive Director at Volunteer Toronto, will be available, as well as photo opportunities.

When: Saturday, June 2, 2018, from 7:00 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Camara and Donovan will be available for interviews from 7:00 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Where: The Fifth Social Club, 225 Richmond St. W., Suite 100, Toronto, ON M5V 1W2

Who: Also present will be a number of well-known charities and non-profits including Amnesty International, The City of Toronto, Habitat for Humanity, the March of Dimes, and more.
